partner Babe,

I like adventures and I propose to you that in July we will fly to Greece and charter a sailboat for a week. Haha, we will find little coves to anchor and have sex on the deck. And we will tie up in small ports with great seafood restaurants. Perfect summer weather. What do you think?

Well, partner thank god I found you babe. You are always game for my schemes. We look up Greek islands and charter companies on the internet. I already have my international captains license. So I can rent a boat.

We find a place to charter on Igoumenitsa, near Corfu. We bring our yacht and beach wear and sandals and sailing shoes and we fly to Athens and then to Corfu. 12 hours of flying. But we are excited! An adventure! Our boat rental starts the next day. We take the ferry to Igoumenitsa and check into a simple hotel with little wooden freestanding cabins. It was a long trip and a long flight. We flew all night across the Atlantic and arrived in Athens then Corfu midday.

Haha, partner, when we walk into the little hotel cabin you immediately strip off your clothes. Naked. At first, I think you are going to take a shower. Haha, no you squat with your knees spread open in the center of our little cabin and hold your hands high above your head for me to admire your incredible uplifted nipples and perky clit. You say, "Jock, wanna lick this hot body?" ho boy. I take off my jeans and shirt and undies. Yes we are both naked now. You do a little dance to show off your curves and try to get me erect. You sit on the edge of the bed and lounge backwards. You raise your legs off the floor, you spread your legs and touch your pussy with one finger. I am only 4 feet away watching your sexy show. You start to rub the finger on your perky clit and start to moan and move your hips. Oh man, it is fun to watch you touch yourself babe. You have the sexiest body in the world and to look at you naked and pulling your petals open is too much. My dick is getting harder and harder watching you.

Haha you stop and flip over with your head hanging off the side of the bed. "Give me your cock baby!" you demand. I stand in front of your face upside down and maneuver my dick into your open mouth. Wow. Your whole naked body is wide open before me and your hot lips are moving up and down my dick. You are moving your head up and down thrown over the side of the bed hanging backwards. I am standing in front of you and holding down my hard dick to fit into your mouth. You do this for a while. Moving your tongue up and down the vein. Pulling it with your fingers. Ahhhhhh. This is nice for me babe.

Then you turn over on your back and turn around and spread your legs wide and you invite me "Lick my clit, baby. Make me cum!" you arch your back and raise your legs. I blurt out: "Fuck you are so fucking sexy partner! How did I ever find you? Haha. I love you so much. " We talk sexy shit to each other. We always have fun teasing and being playful. I don't take too much seriously in life other than my business endeavors. With you babe, I only have fun times. I love being your man!

We are both totally horny. Wow. I can't wait to push my dick into your cunt babe. I am licking you now. oh boy. I love your pink pussy babe. I move my tongue inside your cunt hole. You raise your ass so I can easily lick you deeply.

Then I move my tongue to your clit. I gently tease the tip of your clit with the tip of my tongue. Haha for many minutes. You are hanging on the side of the bed and I'm kneeling in between your wide spread legs. You are squirming underneath me. Grinding your hips. Moaning. Oh you love my tongue baby. You are lying with your body totally open to me. Welcoming every touch and every lick. Finally, you whisper: "Fuck me Baby! Please. Do it!" I mount your open pussy. I ease my dick into you. Slowly. So slowly. Each millimeter feels so sensuous. You sigh. That's feels so good. We move into a slow rhythm. Slowly pressing our bodies together then easing apart. Again and again. Oh we are both getting worked up with this slow sweet lovemaking.

Then I get aroused and start to move a bit faster. Pressing my hard cock up against your clit while plunging deep into your cunt. Again and again. Your hard clit rubbing against the base of my dick really turns me on. I can feel I am going to cum babe. Haha, but you beat me to it. You start crying out. "Oh Jesus, I am going to come. Ooh my god. Oh my god. Oh my god". I love the way you talk yourself into coming. I can see your face twitching with pleasure. Wow. You are so sexy. You moan loud and long. OOOOOHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH.

You throw back your head and scream with your intense orgasm. Wowee. Woweee. I pull out and explode my cum onto your chest. You wipe it with your fingers and lick your fingers. You grab my wet dripping cock and pull it to your mouth. You suck it dry babe. I fall on the bed next to you. “Jesus Christ, partner, you are the sexiest woman I have ever encountered. I’ve had a long life of loves and loving. You are the hottest I have ever experienced my darling.” “Oh Jock, I need your hard dick every day. I love the way you move inside me. You make me cum so hard Jocko.”

So we shower and dress and we go out for a great local Greek fish dinner in the little town of Igoumenitsa. On the Greek mainland. Great. Grilled squids, the local delicacy. Delicious. With German Riesling White Wine. Perfection. Candle lit outdoors café. So romantic.

We sleep in our cozy wooden cabin and in the morning after a nice local farm breakfast, we take a taxi to the yacht marina. We have chartered a 42-foot sloop in Igoumenitsa. One of the nicest and largest boats in the rental fleet. We load our bags onto the boat. I fill out the paperwork. We start it up and out we go!. Our first day at sea!

We work our way out of the harbor into the Ionian sea. Wow, the wind is blowing unusually hard. I turn the boat upwind and we raise the sails. But I reef the sail down two rings because wow it is blowing like stink this morning. We planned a first day of a shorter 3-hour sail to Lefkada. I am glad we did that. The boat, even with the reefs, is overpowered. I am a decent sailor but I don’t go out so often. Maybe twice a year. Wow, we are flying like 6.5 knots. That is like max speed for a sailboat. Flying. We get to Paxos island in about five hours with the sails at 60% reef. So I turn on the motor when we get to the harbor. It has huge concrete walls like an ancient fortress which it was. This is the part of Greece where Odysseus came from in the Odyssey. Small island kingdoms. Odysseus’ island was Ithaca. With stone fortresses in the harbors. Ancient.

It is trick with the heavy winds to enter into the harbor but I get us into the harbor safely and we tie up next to another boat. We put on our sandals. You wear your super short shorty white shorts. With a bikini top. And sexy sandals. Haha, we are going to get mugged and you are going to get raped!

We walk into the town. We buy some local plums from a farm stand and sit on a local small park bench and enjoy them and the beautiful day. It is not windy at all in the town. We get a famous Greek Iced Coffee. Sweet and milky. Delicious. We decide to eat an early dinner while the sun is still out. We find a lovely café and we sit with some other yachters. Everyone is friendly. We get local Ionian seabass grilled outdoors over wood flame. Wow. So crispy and tasty. With local Greek black olives and capers and olive oil. All cooked and crisp. Damn fine meal. We try the local baked sweet Phyllo flaky crust dessert with sweet cheese inside. Haha. I cant pronounce the name of the cheese! Or the dessert! Yum!

We head back to our boat. Haha this is our first night. The boat is small inside but enough room for two. We both strip our clothes off. You go to the front berth the large one and lay down with your ass up in the air like a red flag to a bull. I come up behind you and lick your ass up in the air. Oh you love this, darling. You move your ass in a circle. I finger your pussy. And licking your asshole. Ahhh. The boat gently rocks as other boats motor into the bay. My dick is getting hard. I stand behind you with your ass up in the air perfect height. I push my hard dick into your pussy from behind. You squeal with delight. Haha. Oh you like this, partner. Your ass is so incredibly sexy. So tight and firm and your legs are so slender. Oh wow oh wow. Your physical beauty always drives me crazy. The sun is setting as we fuck and the low beams reflect off your gorgeous face darling. Your piercing eyes so wonderful to look at reflecting the sun's red rays.

I fuck your pussy from behind while I finger your clit. Oh you are getting up and going . You are jamming your ass into my dick. Haha you are doing all the work now. you are so turned on your body is on fire. It is pretty damn sexy I gotta admit. The sunbeams thru the side cabin window are so beautiful.

I pump your pussy until you come then I cum babe. Oh we both feel so sexy. And in love. “ I love you so much my precious partner.” So we cuddle in the bunk and as the sun sets we go to sleep. We sleep so long and solid in the fresh sea air. It is so quiet.

The next morning we get up early with sunrise and make coffee and watch the birds over the water. Oh we love each other. Then we row our boat in and go to the local market. We buy a fresh fish for dinner tonite on the boat and some eggplants and lettuce and beers and white wine. We stop at a garden in front of a charming house and we pick some fresh rosemary sprigs. We go back to our boat. We are going to sail far today to Lefkada island. About 40 miles it will take many hours. We leave the port around 9 am.

We raise our sails. Hmm not much wind today. Our sails flap around. Hmm. We have far to go. So I put on the ship diesel motor. We motor for like 6 hours. Then we get to Lefkada in mid afternoon. A beautiful island. We get in around 4 pm just as the yachts are arriving. It is sort of first come first serve. Some people get up very early do their sailing in the morning and they arrive at the next destination just after lunch to get a preferred parking spot at the town's concrete quay. There is no reservations system. This is like 2,000 years ago. It took us a couple of nights of not being able to find a parking spot because we arrived too late for us to figure this out. But we did. And then we adopted our daily sailing routine to get into the next port earlier.

My reaction is that it is a shame that in our modern world every popular tourist destination in the world is overwhelmed. Even tiny ports on tiny islands. I have been everywhere. In July and August you. Cannot get in anywhere. It sadly created a daily stress each day as I planned each days sailing journey. Each morning I had doubts: "Would we be able to find a place to park the boat tonite?"

We again walk into yet another charming small Greek waterfront town. Hydria on large Lefkada island. We find a cute café. We order grilled squid. The local specialty. There are a lot of squids out there in the Ionian Sea. Wow. So crispy and tasty. With fried potatoes. And good wine.

The next day we motor over to nearby Scorpis island, the home of Aristotle and Jackie Kennedy Onassis. Many years ago. An interesting social story. How he won her heart by offering to protect her from the paparazzi. The world richest man at that time. She put his money into charitable activities. Jackie started the "protect historical architecture in USA" movement. She was appalled that the City of NYC allowed a developer to destroy the Penn Station in 1965, the most beautiful Palladian architecture in the USA, built in the 1920s. To be replaced by Madison Square Garden on top of a commuter train station. The ugliest building in NYC. Jackie for some years was a super famous celebrity. Penn Station was the last historical building destroyed in NYC. Thanks to Jackie O. Haha Aristotle was already world famous as the richest man in the world. A Greek Shipping magnate. An ugly old man but very wealthy and kind. Now he became a famous celebrity as Jackie O's husband. He handled it very elegantly. So unlike Prince Charles who felt threatened by his vivacious wife Diana. The Prince is clearly a loser. Ari was a natural born winner.

We anchor and take our dinghy into the private beach of Scorpis. It is a huge island with one mansion unviewable and probably some guards somewhere. I think the beach is public, like every beach in the world. I bring a sand screw in our backpack and some ropes. We bring our little boat up on to the beach. You are wearing the sexiest bright blue tiny tiny bikini. Haha! I have my flowered shorts and a Miami Heat cap. My favorite sports team. We sit on the beach near our boat. We don't want to go into the island to get hassled. I figured the edge of the beach is "public".

I put the sand screw into the open beach by turning it hard. There doesn't seem to be anyone around. Then I tie the ropes to it and invite you to be my pirate slave. Oh yo ho. You enjoy this. You give me your hands and I tie them above your head while you lay your body on the blanket we brought. Haha. I slowly take off your bathing suit. You are naked and tied up on the beach. Wow. Super sexy partner my lover. I take off my shorts. I touch your nipples and make you moan. Oh you like to be tied up babe and touched. Just like I know how to do to you. We have done this many times together.

You spread your naked legs and beg me "Jock baby, my pirate captain, lick my pussy and fuck me on this beach. You are so much fun my lover". I kneel in between your legs and put my head on your pussy. I enjoy licking you and turning you on. Haha. Then after a lot of licking I mount your pussy with my body. I ease my dick into your cunt and you accept my body to give your body pleasures. Oh we start to fuck on the sand babe with your hands tied to the stake. Like a pirate bitch being raped on the beach by her captor. We move in synch in a very sexy fashion. Your arms tied above your head to the stake. You are moaning and writhing and loving it all!

Then, haha, all of a sudden we hear a loudspeaker! "Seniors & senioritas, here in front of us is Scorpions island, home of Aristotle Onassis from 1980 to 2002." Really loud. Wow. A tour boat had come from out of nowhere. Haha very very close to shore. They came inside our anchored boat. Maybe 100 feet off the beach. And haha. We were naked and fucking hard on the beach. Hmm they didn't know us. We kept fucking. Giving anyone with binoculars a great show. An unexpected entertainment. Oh partner, you got very turned on by our public sex. Yes. We were fucking for an unknown audience. The boat just sat there for like ten minutes. People taking photos. Haha low-end tourists! I stayed on top of you to hide your body. And fucked you. And fucked you. Haha. You were laughing; this was fun and funny. Haha. We didn't know anyone on that boat and they didn't know us.

Then the boat announcer called out to us on the speaker, "thank you for the entertainment, Sailors!" haha. Everyone on the boat cheered as it pulled away from this hot scene. Haha. We made each other come as they pulled away. We were both turned on by the audience! I shot my cum into your hole. You came hard and your juices flowed generously and I licked it. Wow. I love to fuck your hot body baby. Wow. You turn me on. Haha. I turn you on also. We are so damn hot together.

We stood up and put our bathing suits back on. We put our things into the dinghy and rowed back to the sailboat. We swam in the warm water near our boat in deeper clear warm water. We saw from the water that the name of our rented boat was "Big Guy". Haha. That's me. The Big Guy. Haha we hadn't seen it before.

We went to a cove in a nearby island. We anchored by ourselves. Very intimate and cozy. We made our wonderful ordeurves of olives and chess and good Greek white wine.

We were the only boat in this cove. A safe anchorage. Tonight we cooked fresh fish on the grill in the back of the boat. Very nice. Simple. Sea bass with rosemary and olive oil. And fried eggplant. Nice.

We cuddled on the boat and drank some rum with coke. A nice evening on our big sailboat.

While it is still daylight before sunset I pulled our mattress out of the cabin and put it on the foredeck. There are some ropes and winches up there so I had to place it carefully. And a couple of pillows and our blankets. Then when the sun sets and full moon rises we sit on the mattress on the deck with glasses of wine. Toasting our good life together.

Honey we both take our clothes off and we are sitting there naked together. Loving and lusting each other in the twilight. You snuggle up to me but the Greek summer evening air is not chilly. Not hot. Rather pleasant to be naked in the open air. Thank god no mosquitos. The moon highlights your pert nipples. So gorgeous! Honey you get a bit romantic. Haha. We kiss gently and the passionately. "partner, I love spending a sexy vacation with you my darling. You are so sweet and kind and sexy and fun. This is the nicest vacation experience I have ever had." You whisper to me: "Jock, I love every inch of your body. I want you to fuck me tonight in the open air under the moonlight. "

Then we touch each other's nipples and genitals. I am touching you all over babe. We are kissing. Sucking. Licking. You lean back and pull my head to your pussy. We both want this. I lick you. You turn your body around and move your mouth to my dick. We enjoy 69 together in the moonlight on the boat deck. Moon beams reflecting off your hard shiny nipples. Nice. You are sucking hard on my dick now. I am gently licking and licking and licking your clit. Again and again.

It is very sexy to be out in nature, naked. In the moonlight. You are super turned on. You are not speaking at all but you are smiling in the moonlight. Oh, you are so happy my darling partner. When we start making love on the deck you are so happy. Nice. I tell you 20 different ways how much I love you. You are smiling and enjoying my body plunging into yours. We get close to the finish and then we slow down to stretch it out and enjoy each other as long as possible.

We take a little pause. I give you a massage with hot oil on the mattress. “partner darling. What are you thinking about?” you ponder and answer: “Darling, I look forward to your book sales being highly successful. I want to enjoy more time with you like this. Taking in the beautiful spots of the world in an elegant way. We travel so easily together. We never argue. I accept your plans. I always say yes to your ideas. Darling Jock, I really do love you!”

Then we start to fuck again. Oh we move so sexily together. Your hips grinding into mine. In synch. You are moaning and groaning in pleasure. We fuck again and again. Loving each other. Kissing each other. Touching each other. Giving maximum pleasure to each other. Nice. Wow I am turned on babe. Your body is so damn hot. And your attitude and style is so sensuous. I feel I am with the worlds sexiest woman.

Finally, we cum together. So hot. We both arrive at the finish at the same time. You explode in orgasm. So wonderful your face is lit up like a firework. You have experienced such pleasure. And then I come so hard my dick explodes. I shoot my cum all over you. You love it. My wet cock glistens in the moonlight.

“That was a hot day we had Babel!. Sex on the beach with an audience. Sex on the boat roof in the moonlight. Pretty good sailing holiday. We love each other so much babe. I love you more than I have ever loved anyone.” You are so fine, partner. I pour us one more glass of wine each. We sit and stare at the moon for 30 minutes in silence. Just loving reach other. I am throwing so much love energy at you babe.

The next day we sleep in and then make coffee and eat fruit. We sail long distance the next two days to take the boat back to Igoumenitsa. We enjoyed our wonderful hot sexy sail in the Greek islands. Nice. We returned the boat in one piece and started our long and convoluted return journey back to Florida. We spent two days in Rome en route to take in some history and enjoy some good Italian cuisine. When I visit a classic town like Rome, each day I try to visit one museum, one mansion, and one or two gorgeous churches with famous paintings. And piazza Navona with the incredible fountain sculptures by Bernini in 1651.

Then we flew back to Florida from Rome. Best wishes to all til' our next adventure!
